

ELECTRIC RAILWAY MUSEUM Beer & Cider Festival Menu & Tasting Notes

BEERS

KENT WEISSBEER

NO FRILLS JOE, Greenhithe | 4.5%

A hazy, vegan-friendly beer with an authentic German taste. Perfect for October!

KENT STATION PORTER

BREW BUDDIES, Swanley | 4.8%

A deep, dark Porter with chocolate, vanilla and a hint of coffee. Something special.

KENT SAISON

BREW BUDDIES, Swanley | 5.2%

This traditional, lemony farmhouse-style ale uses British pilgrim hops.

KENT GREEN HOP PALE

BREW BUDDIES, Swanley | 3.8%

Green Hop is special. Kentish hops go to boil within hours of picking. A floral flavour.

CIDERS

CROSS FARM PERRY

BOTTLE KICKING, Leics | Medium | 5.0%

A subtle pear flavour is aided by a slight sweetness and dry finish.

C2

BOTTLE KICKING, Leics | Medium Sweet | 4.0%

An interesting yet moreish combination of sharp and sweet over a fruity apple cider.

WARKS AMBER ALE

DHILLONS BREWERY, Coventry | 4.5%

Dark gold with a frothy head from Munich malts, a floral aroma and slight honey taste.

WARKS GOLDEN PALE

DHILLONS BREWERY, Coventry | 3.8%

A touch of toffee on the palate and orange on the nose. A solid all-rounder.

WARKS RED IPA

DHILLONS BREWERY, Coventry | 6.2%

Back to a true 17th century recipe. American and European hops and extremely complex.

LEICS PALE ALE

MARKET BOSWORTH, Stoke Golding | 5.2%

Citrusy, hoppy, bitter and golden. A proper festival pale ale!

LEICS BEST BITTER

MARKET BOSWORTH, Stoke Golding | 4.8%

A beautiful dark copper ale with a malty hit and a lingering bitterness.

TRADITIONAL

WISE OWL, Kent | Dry | 6.0%

Award-winning producer from the Garden of England with a fantastic bittersweet blend.

TAMOSHANTA

PILTON, Somerset | Medium Sweet | 4.0%

Traditionally keeved with natural carbonation and matured in oak whiskey casks. Fantastic!

Supported by drinkaware

The Electric Railway Museum Beer & Cider Festival is proudly presented and sponsored by The Kentish Belle Ale House — a new Micropub opening next to Bexleyheath Station, south east London in November 2017. Be sure to visit and follow us on twitter @thekentishbelle

